Administration

To the Class of 1992:

Four years ago as I began my career as your supe
intendent of schools, you began your high school caree
I am confident that these four years were filled with ma wonderful memories and successful experiences son of which you and I have been lucky enough to share

Our successes were made possible by the hard wo and dedication of a tremendous group of professior educators. We have been fortunate to be associate with administrators and teachers who are committed providing quality instruction and an excellent high scho program. This commitment is proudly supported by bo communities for a distinguished education program.

As you finish one career and begin the pursuit another, I can only hope and anticipate that you w apply the knowledge, skills, experiences you have a quired to your best advantage. Build upon your succe experiences. Acknowledge those individuals who ha been a positive influence in your life. Continue to successful in all future endeavors.

Richard Kisiel
Superintendent of Schools

To the Class of 1992:

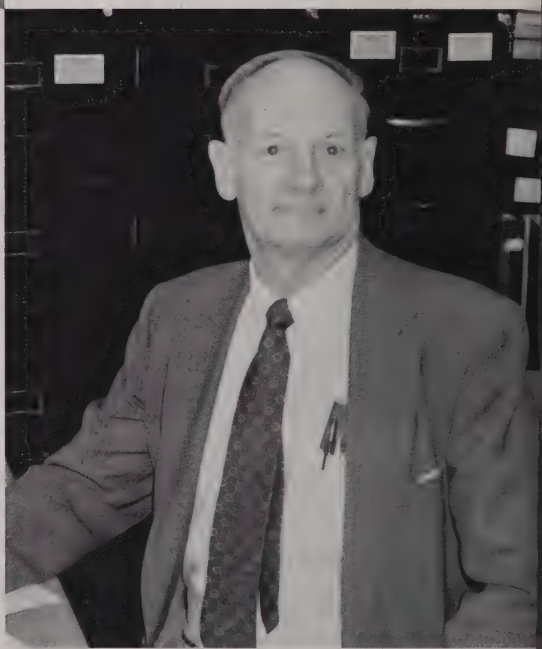
This yearbook should provide you with many happy memories through the years. We are happy to have been a part of your past. We anticipate that you will have a bright, happy, interesting, and challenging future. We certainly wish you the very best in all that you attempt.

Success can be attained if you.....

*Care more than others think is wise.
*Risk more than others think is safe.
*Dream more than others think is practical.
*Expect more than others think is possible.

May you enjoy a lifetime of happiness and good fortune.

Marshall Sawyer
Principal



To the Class of 1992:

My best wishes for health, happiness and much success as you begin a new chapter in your lives. Hopefully, the story written to date has a happy ending. Whatever it is that you now choose to do will require you to call upon the education you received at D-R as a resource. If you prepared well, you should have few difficulties. For the few times that you might, I'll share this quote with you that I like to recall when problems seem to be overwhelming: "Tomorrow is a new day with no mistakes in it." Good fortune in whatever it is you choose to do.

George H. Petrin
Assistant Principal

To the Class of 1992,

Your years at Dighton Rehoboth have helped to build a rm foundation for the future. Opportunities for knowledge, kills, values, understanding and friendship have been lentiful. Grow from your past experiences and set your oals high for tomorrow. Use the gifts and talents that you ave to live life to the fullest. May real success be with you lways. Congratulations and best wishes to you, the Class f 1992.

Mr. Francis M. Marcille
Assistant Principal
Director of Occupational Education

Winners Are People Like You

Winners take chances.
Like everyone else, they fear failing,
but they refuse to let fear control them.
Winners don't give up. When life gets rough, they hang in until the going gets better.
Winners know they are not perfect.
They respect their weaknesses while making the most of their strenghs. Winners fall, but they don't stay down. Winners don't blame fate for their failures nor luck for their successes. Winners accept responsibility for their lives. Winners believe in the path they have chosen even when it's hard.
Winners are patient. They know a goal is only as worthy as the effort that's required to achieve it.
Winners are people like you. They make this world a better place to be.
To the Class of 1992 - my best wishes, now and always.

The 1991-92 school year was a very active and productive year for D-R's Student Government. Under the leader of President Lisa Stevens, Vice-President Will Yelle, Treasurer Meghan Sullivan, and Secretary Lori Messenger, the e Student Government Membership took on numerous community service projects, school related issues, and just plain student activites.

Through the efforts of this year's Student Government, the highest contributions ever at D-R were made to the CSF to the Thanksgiving Basket Drive. Student accessibility to our media center was improved and changes were mad improve our cafeteria service. A very successful Blood Drive was conducted. Red Ribbon Week, the Great Amer Smokeout, and Freshmen Orientation Week were also projects that this year's Student Government helped to make successful.

The highlight of the many fun activities conducted by Student Government was the 1st ever Mr. D-R Pageant. Fin D-R's Student Government made a strong effort to become more involved with our regional affiliation SEMASC and state-wide affiliation MASC.

All of the senior members of this year's Student Government can be especially proud of their accomplishments. result of their efforts, many traditions have been established and D-R's Student Government has been given new direc and should be a strong organization for years to come.

This year was a memorable year for Peer Leaders, characterized by huge success. Membership increased to over hundred members, and not only have we expanded to accomadate them, but we have grown into a network that is ma a difference in our communities. With Mrs. Pridham as our advisor and our friend we, (especially the seniors) becam family, and room 218 became our home. We sponsored, as we had in the past, such activities as the bottle & can c the children's craft fair, high school health fair, suicide prevention day, Post Prom, Great American Smokeout, tea appreciation day, talent show, and freshman day. Our single biggest project was National Red Ribbon Week when w an overwhelming positive response from the whole community. Most importantly we piloted many new projects suc the SCA/Peer Leadership Newsletter, 8th grade presentation and Easter Egg Hunt. We also started working with Mr. H in the TV Room on a television commercial. Some Peer Leaders recieved independent study and worked on Peer Le projects, reality theropy and teaching the Studies in Human Behavior course. I would like to thank Meghan Sullivan (President), Jeff Tracey (Secretary), and Kristen Lombardi (Treasurer) for their hard work. I'd also like to give a special t you to Mrs. Pridham for everything she's given to us and for making the memories of our years here something that w with us forever.

n only its third year of existence, the Falcon Flyer is the student-run newspaper of Dighton-Rehoboth High School. s year, there were 35 students who participated in both the writing and organizational aspects of the newspaper. se who were in charge of each of the five departments were Robin Lindblom, news editor, Soyong Cho, assistant s editor, Jenn Benoit, sports editor, Cary Hollinshead, editorial editor, Aaron Kennon, assistant editorial editor, on Panofsky, opinion editor, and Steve Mendrzychowski, features editor. Senior Jenn Rogala acted as Editor-in-ef this year, and junior Sue Misika was managing editor. Mr. and Mrs. Day played the roles as the advisors to the dents, making sure that everything went smoothly.

Besides publishing four, eight page papers this year, the staff also entered a special edition to the Taunton Daily zette, where it was able to display its best writing talents to a wider audience.

The senior members of the Falcon Flyer would like at this time to thank the Dighton-Rehoboth school system for wing it the opportunity to publish the newspaper.

'his year the Drama Club was quite ve. During the fall of 1991, the play aper By the Dozen was performed by ous D- R students. It was a great cess. The next task for the Drama ɔ was putting together one of the ndest musicals in D-R history. Before bright lights of the auditorium, on the kend of March 13-15, the cast bril- tly performed the long awaited musical ıth Pacific. Leading roles were played Amy O'Connell and Tom Santos as ie Forbush and Emile Debeque, re- ctively. The stellar performance put on he Drama Club can be attributed to the sational actors, actresses, and the ntless effort of the parents. A hearty sincere thank you is extended to Mr. ray, Mrs. Conrad, and many other tributors to the play's success!!

he uniqueness of this years Mock Trial Team is represented by their concern for some of the social issues effecting ety today. This years trial dealt with child abuse, and the responsibility to report it.
n a competive environment, such as mock trial, these young people were willing to accept the responsibility for their individual contributions and at the same time contribute to the needs of their teammates.
his years team roster was made up of 12 capable students. Jennifer Lombardi, San Budhiraja, Cary Hollinshead, resa Kushner, Kristen Lombardi, Jason Pavao, Matt Davies, Nicole Carey, Stacey Parenteau, Brenda Osso, Kelly eira, and Matt Debona made up this successful band of attorneys. With the help of their committed advisor, Milton hbar, and their experienced attorney, Marita Durkin, their team claimed two out of three victories and missed the ni-finals by one point. Determination and pride made this years Mock Trial Team a successful one.

In the 1991-2 season, the Falcons' Cross Country Program experienced its strongest success in the school's history, with both the Boys' and the Girls' Teams not only qualifying for but also finishing high in State competition. Likewise, the Program had its largest number of participating athletes with over forty-four runners.

The Boys' Team earned a third place finish in Eastern Massachusetts Division III competition and ninth in Massachusetts in the Small School Division State Championships. The team was spearheaded by junior Aaron Kennon, who was followed closely by senior Chris Silvia, juniors Steve Lacy and Matt Killam, sophomores Tim Charnecki, Blais Bellenoit, Adam Spreyer, Kyle Grant, Rob Mullen, and freshman Kyle Long.

The Girls' Team, led by four-time Eastern Massachusetts Division III Champion and three-time State Champion Cary E. Hollinshead, who also was named to the Boston Globe's "All Scholastic Team" for four successive years and "Runner of the Year" for the third time in four years. The Girls' Team, comprised of seniors Jennifer Benoit and Amy O'Connell, juniors Mary Murphy and Jennifer Dessert, and sophomores Jessica Charbonneau and Katie Hawksley, for the second successive year finished second in Eastern Massachusetts Division III and seventh in the Small School Division in the Massachusetts State Championships.

With only one senior boy and three senior girls graduating, the Falcon teams look forward to even stronger performance in the next two years.

lthough this year's Golf team struggled to a 3 and 15 ecord this season, it established a foundation for future uccess. Freshmen Kevin Torres, Sean McConaghy, Matt ntonio and Brian Malaguti, started in almost every match. he experience they gained this season will certainly pay ff in the future. Senior captain Dave Glynn had an utstanding season, as he was named to the South Coast onference, the Attleboro Sun-Chronicle and the Fall River lerald All-Star teams. Senior Aaron Panofsky and juniors latt Perra and Scott Irving also contributed much to this ear's team. The next three years should be very interest-ng for D-R golf.

The Varsity Field Hockey Team, under the direction of head coach, Dawn LaBounty, had a successful season finishing 9-6-2 overall and 8-5-1 in the South Coast Conference for a fourth place finish. The reason for the team's success was the hard work of the girls, especially the captains Meg Sullivan, Katie Murphy, and Jenn Lombardi. The team qualified for the state tournament, but lost a hard fought battle to Dennis-Yarmouth 1-0. The girls played to a 0-0 tie through 60 minutes of regulation time and 30 minutes of sudden death overtime. The game was decided in a stroke-off, with D-Y edging D-R 2-1. The team's Most Valuable Player Award went to Meg Sullivan, the Most Improved Award went to Mylinh Torrey, the Coaches Award went to Jenn Lombardi, and the MIAA Sportsmanship Award went to Katie Murphy. Lastly, "it's only Bourne, and it's going to rain!!!"

The 1991 Falcon Football Team completed one of the most successful seasons in D-R history. The Falcons posted a lofty record of 10 wins and 1 loss and registered 9 shut-outs. The Falcon opposition was held to 21 total points for the entire season. Highlights of the season included a thrilling 7-0 win over Case which snapped the Cardinals 15 game winning streak and a convincing 23-0 shut-out of Seekonk on Thanksgiving. Six D-R players were named to the All- South Coast Conference All-Star team. (Dan Bearce nose guard, Dean Spunzo offensive guard, Joe Hamilton quarterback, Kevin Gousie linebacker, Chris DeMello safety, and Jeff Tracey receiver) In addition, Dan Bearce and Dean Spunzo were selected to play in the prestigious Massachusetts Shriners' High School Football Classic. The 1991 Falcon Football Team will be remembered as a dominating team that ranks with the best in D-R sports history.

The 1991 soccer season proved to be the most successful he short history of the sport. The team finished with an 8- record with very impressive wins over Gr. New Bedford c-Tech and Apponequet for the first time ever. The team s led by a very strong defensive unit which allowed only 8 goals per game. Playing on their own home field for the t time also proved to be very advantageous for the Fal- ns. The team was led by Co-Captains David Fontes and enden Lynch and seniors Marc Brochu, David Cox, Ben mmis, Juan Urbano, and Andy Wood.

Overall the JV season was successful. With 7 freshamn and 4 sophomores playing at the JV level on a regular bas combined with 5 to 7 swing players from the varsity squad, the performance of the JV squad was quite good. With t shuffling of players, there was really no continuity from one game to the next, therefore any success that we had wa well earned. The veteran JV players demonstrated a great deal of leadership to the new freshman players and deve oped their own skills at the same time. The new players that we had on our squad improved their skills a great deal over the course of the season. It seems as though there are a good number of JV players that want to make the jur to the varsity level next year. While there are some openings that are available, the competition will be fierce with a the players pushing each other for the varsity slots. Some JV players from last year started on the varsity team this year. Will you be one of them? Every year we have unexpected surprises, players that we had not counted on and suddenly made a big impact. We need to have every player improve a great deal if we are going to be successful.

Despite a 5 and 11 record in the tough South Coast Conference, the 1992 Falcons proved to be a very competitive team. Victories over both league champion Wareham and 2nd place Gr. New Bedford Voc-Tech were evidence of the Falcons potential to compete with the best teams in the league.

Senior Co-Captain Chris DeMello enjoyed an outstanding season, finishing as the team's leading scorer and being recognized as an unanimous All SCC selection. Seniors AJ Ferreira, Brian Caldwell, and David Fontes all made positive contributions to the team's effort over the course of the season and can be proud of their determination and perserverance.

spite extreme youth and inexperience, the "Lady cons" finished .500 in one of the toughest leagues in state. The highlight of the regular season was a 44 win over second place Case (18-5). The "Lady cons" made an incredible run in the state tourna- nt with dramatic upsets at Milton and at Duxbury ore losing at Nauset. Robin Lindblom's (team MVP) e throw with one second remaining sent the Milton ne into overtime, and the outstanding play of Laurie an and Jill MacDonald carried the girls to the upset ighly rated Duxbury. Due to their success in the rnament, the "Lady Falcons" were named the ortschannel Team of the Week for the entire state. ophomore Beth Giles was named all-conference.

Although the D-R Girls Tennis Team did not have a succes ful season record-wise, the squad was involved in many clo contests. Leading the team in individual victories was two ye most valuable player, senior Lindsay Carroll, who held down t first singles position. Lindsay and San Budhiraja served highly respected co-captains of the twenty-five player squa The other senior members of the team were Jen Benoit, Ker Carter, Jen Machado, Lisa Stevens, Astrid Leff, and Rob Lindblom.

Looking to the future, the Falcons will have several returni varsity players who should blend nicely with the promisi members of the 1992 J. V. unit.

This year's Boys' Spring Track Team had one of its most successful seasons in the school's history, achieving an overall record of 9-1 and a 7-1 second place finish in the very competitive South Coast Conference. Leading the team were co-captains Jeff Tracey, Dan Bearce, and Chris Silvia. Both Jeff and Dan were Conference All-Stars, along with senior John Williams, junior middle distance runner Aaron Kennon, and sophomore Tim Charnecki. Senior Joe Benoit, junior Andy Fyfe, and sophomore Jeff Figueira were very competitive sprinters throughout the season, as well as members of the 400 meter relay team. Senoir Jeff Tracey also established a school record in the High Jump(6 feet-4 inches) and tied his brother Doug's record in the 300 Intermediate Hurdles(42.7).

At the South Coast Conference Championships, the Falcons produced winners in the Long Jump(John Williams) and in the Triple Jump(Jeff Tracey). In the Eastern Massachusetts Class Championships, D-R had one Class C Champion-- junior Aaron Kennon in the 400 meter dash with a time of 50.8, and two third place finishes by senior co-captains Jeff Tracey in the High Jump and Dan Bearce in the Shot Put.

With such a wealth of young track and field event people, the Falcons are anticipating a promising future in the sport.

SENIOR AWARDS DAY

Robert T. Roy Medal

Sara Pauline Gaucher

The award is presented annually to the outstanding member of the senior class, i.e., the student who best demonstrates in his or her daily living those qualities exemplified and exhibited by Mr. Roy in his years of dedicated public service. These are: scholarship, honesty tempered with compassion, loyalty circumscribed by sportsmanship, dedication leavened by insight and humor, and achievement.

Sara's achievements and qualifications for this award are numerous. She is valedictorian of her class and has earned superior academic awards in each of her four years in high school. She is the recipient of the Rensselaer Medal --presented to that student who represents the very best in both mathematics and science. She is a national merit commended student and the recipient of the chancellor's award by the University of Massachusetts. She is a skilled musician and a member of the Greater Boston Youth Symphony Orchestra. She is a talented actress and has a superb singing voice which was demonstrated when she played the lead in the Sound of Music. She will attend the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in the fall--a most worthy recipient of the Robert T. Roy Medal.

James F. Frates Award

Robin Beth Lindblom

This award was established in 1979 in recognition of an outstanding educator, Mr. James Frates, who gave his entire professional life to serve the people of Dighton and Rehoboth. The award is presented to that member of the senior class and National Honor Society who best exemplifies those qualities of membership in the National Honor Society., i.e. leadership, scholarship, service, and character.

Robin is an athlete; field hockey, basketball and tennis all being among her extra curricular activities. She has been described as: a team player and her quiet leadership both encourages and influences her teammates. Beyond athletics, she has found time to be in chorus, student government, the French club, and the school newspaper as both a writer and editor. She has pursued two languages: French (for four years) and Latin, always maintaining an "A" average. She is a special kind of person-- thoughtful, great smile, sensitive and caring. Her future goals include becoming a teacher, just like Mr. Frates. She has so much to give to the children of tommorow.

Mustard Seed Winner

Cary Hollinshead

The Mustard Seed Scholarship is a total $32,000 scholarship provided to Dighton-Rehoboth by an anonymous donor. The Mustard Seed is made available to emphasize the importance of excellence, creativity, and love of learning among students. It is intended to encourage the growth of individuals who can effectively contribute to and constructively change our society.

Cary Hollinshead was selected by Dighton-Rehoboth faculty and Student Government from an original list of 43 applicants. She is class salutatorian and will be attending Princeton University in the fall. Cary is a National Merit Scholar and is very active in extra curricular activities. She is a premier athlete, being one of the top distance runners in the state. She is a three year state champion and has been the Boston Globe Runner of the Year for all four years of her high school career. She has been a member of the newspaper; and representative to the Student Government. She is also a member of the National Honor Society.

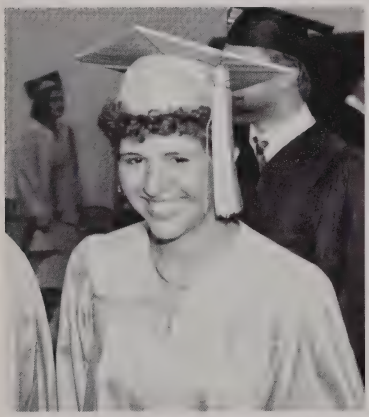
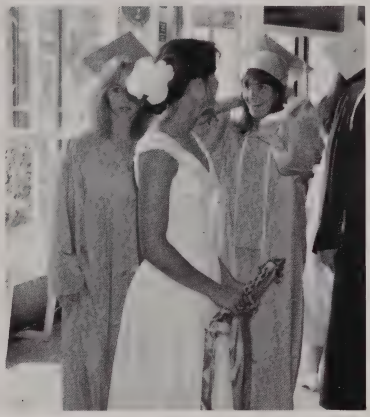
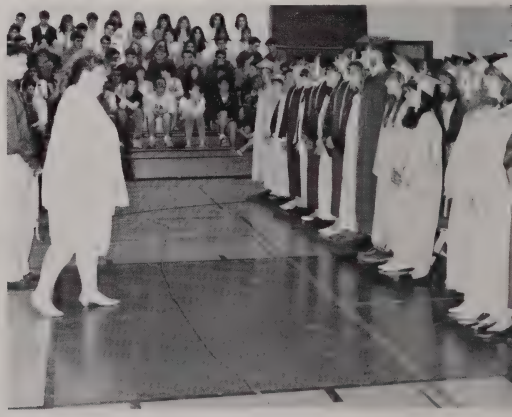
GRADUATION







Today is a day of memories, joy and hope. We hope that these graduating students may move out into the world and help make it a better place to live in. It's a chance for us to expand ourselves and prove our strengths that were taught to us during these precious four years at D-R. It is a chance for us to use the tools taught to us by the faculty and our encouraging families.

Not only are we about to shape ourselves into fine adults ready to conquer the real world, we are also about to live in it. "Life is what happens to you when you're busy making other plans" is a quote we can reflect upon when we forget what life is like to live and not something that just happens. We are the Class of '92, a class of achievers, a class of leaders, but most important, a class of togetherness and well-rounded people. We've had our four years of working and struggling to be number one. With the knowledge we will be taking with us, we will be able to swim the roughest waters.

Now is the time to set aside the butterflies of anticipation and the concerns we have about our future. It should be a summer of lasting friendships, talks of tomorrow, and teenage wishes come true.

But, as our final summer ends, so must our fun. We are now prepared to step onto the next plateau in our life. But we, the Class of 1992, can surpass that plateau and return to reunions with stories of success and sparks of desire still burning. The same close friends won't be there everyday when we need them, but we will still have the memories to help us through. I have faith in every member of this graduating class, and I encourage them to live life to its full extent.

I would like to thank the faculty and parents for molding us into the next generation of adults ready to accept the torch of our future.

The communities of Dighton and Rehoboth have sponsored our projects and attended our events. Teachers have tried to educate us, and we have usually tried to learn. Our families have watched us grow and lived with the results. We are grateful to you, and I hope you are proud of us. We are living proof of our class motto; "If you believe in the impossible, the incredible will come true." The class of 1992 is full of wonderful people. Among these students we have artists and athletes, communicators, builders, and musicians. Some of us have overcome family difficulties and personal setbacks to be here today. Each one of us has broken the mental barrier that says, "That's impossible". In middle school, I was a failure athletically and socially. I leave high school having been a state cross country champion and a happy member of the school community. Everyone here has had unpredictable success. In a few cases it has led to public recognition, but our most important triumphs have been personal. We may be the only ones who know of them. Sometimes only our families or people who have helped us are aware of our breakthroughs. Other people do help us grow. I remember a teacher who persuaded me that I could and would pass the next test, despite my doubts. I also remember being told that I was not expected to do well in a race. That was all the motivation I needed to run as fast as I could. We are, most of us, stubborn teenagers. We like to prove you wrong when you say we're not quite good enough. If it takes a little rebellion to make us push ourselves, that's fine. The rewards are the same. By believing that we could graduate from high school, we ensured that we would, so here we are.

None of us knows exactly what our lives will be like beyond this point. In unfamiliar situations it is easy to retreat to comfortable ideas and habitual behavior. I hope that all of us will resist that impulse. We can't expect people to applaud if we do keep trying new things, but we can expect to lead more interesting lives. Resisiting change will always limit our ability to grow. Right now we are all eager to leave high school. Let's keep that enthusiam for the unknown. The rest of our lives are going to be full of self discovery. Consider it a treasure hunt.

We as Americans value individual achievement above almost everything else. Those who "believe in the impossible" and achieve "incredible" things are our most esteemed heroes and heroines. Hank Aaron believed he could hit more home runs than Babe Ruth, and he did. Many people thought that it was impossible to break the sound barrier until Chuck Yeager did it. Such individuals, who have done what others thought previously impossible, have been inspirations to countless others.

Yet they didn't succeed alone. Who was Hank Aaron's batting coach, and who built the Bell X-1 that Yeager flew? These "background" people are often forgotten by history. Every accomplishment is a team effort, no one works completely alone. Hank Aaron's team partook in his "impossible dream" just as much as he did, so they too participated in his accomplishments.

I'm really trying to say that we need a new "impossible dream". It has to be bigger than 715 home runs or mach 1, bigger than A's in college or a high paying job. It has to be a dream of combined, concentrated participation, involving teamwork and unity of effort. The world's problems are not going to be solved through individual effort, instead, we Americans must think of each other instead of just ourselves.

Now that we the Class of 1992 are leaving Dighton-Rehoboth High School, we must begin to think in this new way. We aren't leaving D-R primarily to find our fortunes or to find ourselves; we are leaving to join the world. For the first time in our lives, we are going to be responsible for the world, and if we want to save it, we must believe in saving it. The problems of poverty, racism, AIDS, and the environment, among so many others, seem impossible to solve, but if we all get interested, get informed, get involved, and get together, I bet we will surprise ourselves.

Before you today are achievers. People who have dream the unthinkable and succeeded; people who have strived the unobtainable and triumphed. "If you believe in impossible, the incredible will come true." These people front of you today, wholeheartedly believe in this motto a most importantly, they believe in themselves.

Our lives, although varying slightly, share the same complishments, struggles, and failures. It was just yester when we lost our first tooth, learned how to read and wr colored within the lines, made a team, grew an inch, went a date, got a job, and finally graduated from Dight Rehoboth. All these feats, which were once viewed impossible, exist today as memories; incredible memori

Tomorrow such tasks as college, the armed forces, a the work force will present new challenges and opportunit to this year's graduating class. Also, the intimidating sit tion of making new friends, new goals, and especially, a n life poses a serious threat to our stability here at D-R. In or to surmount these new obstacles, we must believe. We m believe we are good enough and strong enough to tac these feats. We must believe we can conquer and succe in anything we do. We must believe in ourselves. Las and, most importantly, we must believe in the impossible a life, life will be incredible.

The Road Not Taken

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that, the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I --
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Robert Frost

Excerpts from The Velveteen Rabbit

What is real?" asked the Rabbit one day, when they were lying side by side near he nursery fender.
"Does it mean having things that buzz inside you and a stick-out handle?"
"Real isn't how you are made," said the Skin Horse. "It's a thing that happens to ou. When a child loves you for a long, long time, not just to play with, but REALLY ves you, then you become Real."
"Does it hurt?" asked the Rabbit.
"Sometimes," said the Skin Horse.
"When you are Real you don't mind being hurt."
"Does it happen all at once, like being wound up," he asked, "or bit by bit?"
"It doesn't happen all at once," said the Skin Horse. "You become. It takes a long me. That's why it doesn't often happen to people who break easily, or have sharp dges, or who have to be carefully kept. Generally, by the time you are Real, most of our hair has been loved off, and your eyes drop out and you get loose in the joints nd very shabby. But these things don't matter at all, because once you are Real ou can't be ugly, except to people who don't understand."

Good Luck and Best Wishes to the Class of 1992!!
